DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or overbusy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better by reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Catarrh

To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt, that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial help. Nothing certainly, is so convincing as a physical test of any article of real, genuine merit. But that article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Such soothing agents as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety, cream like Petrolatum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, etc. surely call for Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

For uncomplicated catarrh only of the nose and throat nothing else, however, need be used but

Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure

WEST VIRGINIA'S DEBT.

Hon. John G. Carlisle in conference in Washington Saturday with Governor Dawson of West Virginia, Attorney General May and other officials of that State upon the subject of the answer to be made to the U. S. Supreme Court in the matter of the debt settlement between Virginia and West Virginia. There is a question of some $25,000,000 to $40,000,000 in issue between the two commonwealths. The Supreme Court at its last sitting overruled the demurer of West Virginia in the case at bar, with privilege to make reply at the October term of court.

Saturday night's conference had to do with the preliminaries of the answer to be made, Washington being selected as the meeting place for the conference on account of that city's accessibility and other attractions. As the conference was entirely preliminary no statement of interest to the public was given out.

This case promises to be one of the celebrated law suits of the times. When West Virginia was separated from Virginia a provision was agreed to that the new State should bear a proportion of the State debt. There is a squabble now over the settlement. The demurrer of West Virginia, recently overruled by the U. S. Supreme Court, was a very spirited document, in the course of which the suggestion was made that perhaps the Supreme Court could not make West Virginia pay anyhow. Whereupon the court mildly intimated that the question of its power to enforce a judgment would be treated when the occasion should arise. In the meantime West Virginia will have opportunity to make another showing in court.

It is said that if West Virginia should be cast for the proportion of the debt it would be a heavy obligation on the State. An interesting bit of gossip in this connection is the statement that some years ago a bill was offered in the legislature providing for the funding of the outstanding liability at a low figure, but the bill was beaten and the man who offered it was defeated also. If the State is now held to accountability the proportion will be much larger.

Says Gen. Lee Never Owned Any Slaves.

Col. John S. Mosby, now a special attorney for the Department of Justice, is authority for the statement that Gen. Robert E. Lee never owned slaves, in contradiction to the announcement at a recent celebration at Richmond that Lee had freed his slaves before the end of the war.

Colonel Mosby declares that those slaves had been the property of Mr. Custis, Lee's father-in-law, who died just before the war, and who provided in his will that his slaves be manumitted. Mosby says Lee was the executor.

"Lee was at the front in 1863, and there issued his order of manumission in compliance with the provision of the Custis will," says Mosby. "But the war had already freed them. At the time the order was issued the slaves were in Father Abraham's bosom in Washington. They were far free than Lee."

Colonel Mosby had great affection for Lee and pays high tribute to him as a general, but declares he had nothing of the politican about him. "If he had been a Cromwell," says Mosby, "he would have brought peace when Lincoln promised the South to pay for the slaves who were freed if the Confederate forces would lay down their arms and surrender unconditionally. Lee called the peace conventions, but he let the people decide instead of guiding their opinion in the way he wanted it."

The King's Garden Party.

More than 7,000 guests assembled in the grounds of Windsor Castle, Eng., Saturday afternoon to attend the garden party with which King Edward wound up Ascot week.

The gathering was representative of all classes of society and official life, including members of the royal family, the King of Siam, Prince and Princess Andrew of Greece, the diplomatic corps, Members of Parliament, bishops and dissenters, large representation of Americans, many military and naval officers and a host of notabilities, conspicuous among whom was Mark Twain (Samuel L. Clements).

The royal party had their headquarters in two large marquees, where the visitors thronged to pay their respects. The bands of the Horse Guards and Grenadier Guards furnished the music. The company was massed on the East Lawn, a splendid stretch of grass, around which are the castle golf links, and made a most impressive scene.

Many tons of flowers were used in the decoration of the tents in which refreshments were served. Ten special trains brought the London guests, and all the roads leading to Windsor were crowded with motor cars throughout the afternoon.

Turtle Brings Message from Sea.

One of the puzzles of the sea came to the surface Friday, when a gigantic sea turtle was captured by Julius Solisss, a San Diego, Cal., fisherman. The monster weighs 1,902 pounds and its shell is five feet two inches from tip to tip. On its back is burned or carved this inscription: "British ship Seabrine, Aug. 12, 1881, 3 south, 86 west. If found please notify Thomas Fletcher, Brawley road, Rivington, England." It would appear from this fact that the turtle was captured twenty-six years ago in the south Pacific, and that he was released after the lettering had been burned in its shell.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING. JUNE 24, 1907.

FOR THE purpose of releasing the retail tobacco dealers of the United States from the tentacles of the tobacco trust, it has been decided by the federal government to prosecute the American Tobacco Company under the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law for a conspiracy in restraint of trade. This prosecution will be inaugurated at once in the United States Circuit Court in New York city. It will be in the form of a bill of complaint, setting forth that the American Tobacco Company not only has monopolized the wholesale tobacco trade of the country, but it also has control of the retail business, and that it is resorting to unlawful and unscrupulous methods to drive competitors to the wall. The bill of complaint will ask the court to issue an order dissolving the trust. If this prosecution is successful the United Cigar Stores Company will be driven out of business, and the independent retailers will again have an opportunity to engage in business.

CARDINAL GIBBONS, in a commencement address at Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., last week, referring to the great need of our times for the betterment of society, said: "What the times call for is men, sturdy men, endowed with the courage of their convictions. Many a soldier who fearlessly rushed to the cannon's mouth has quailed before the shafts of ridicule and the shouts of popular prejudice. The man who calmly fulfills a duty against public clamor displays greater courage than the captain who captures cities." What the cardinal says about the need of strong men is only what has been said by many before, but it is feared that the times when "none was for the party and all were for the State" have gone, probably not to return for many moons.

FROM SO good a republican source as the New York Tribune it is learned that the owners of flathouses on both sides of 140th street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, have signed an agreement not to sell or lease their premises to negro tenants. The agreement has been filed in the register's office, and is the result of the threatened invasion of the district by negroes. If people living in the South were to sign and record such an agreement the Tribune would denounce them as "undesirable citizens" and declare the proceedings to be unlawful, but as this was done in New York the matter is passed by with a mere mention!

DURING the past week upwards of two thousand children, white and colored girls and boys, were released from the public schools of this city for a long vacation. It is to be hoped that their parents may find some light employment for them either at home or elsewhere so that they might not throw their time away "running" the streets and forming habits of idleness which requires time to overcome. That these children need and should have a vacation for recreation and play is not denied, but vacation, like many other things, can be overdone and this is what the children's parents should guard against.

MR. JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES says that while celebrating Georgia Day at the Jamestown Exposition recently Mr. Roosevelt declared he would be a candidate for re-election to the presidency if assured he would get the electoral vote of a single southern State. It is strange that two weeks were allowed to elapse before such an announcement was made public and the impression prevails that Mr. Graves will have to produce witnesses to prove his assertion.

THE National Cranberry Exchange, which has just been formed in New Jersey, is said to represent 75 per cent. of the growers in that State and in Massachusetts and Wisconsin. Notwithstanding the laws that are annually being passed to prevent the formation of trusts and to punish those who engage in business in restraint of trade, the trusts seem to grow and flourish like the green bay tree.

ADVICES from St. Petersburg state that the Emperor is determined to obtain a Douma which will respect property. He is right, and no sane man can dispute this. When law making bodies ignore property rights no time should be lost in dissolving them.

MAYOR SCHMITZ, of San Francisco, convicted of grafting and now locked up in jail steadily refuses to resign, and insistes on performing the duties of his office. Here is an excellent case to test the persuasive qualities of the cat-o'-nine tails.

Fire in Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn., June 24.—Fire in the Brown Chemical Company's Market street establishment endangered the entire jobbing district today. The loss was $25,000. Fireman James Smith was injured by falling glass. A small boy started the fire by stepping on a match.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Several recent developments indicate that the South is playing an important part in the calculation of the administration for the capture of the next republican national convention by a candidate who will support the Roosevelt policies. Not only has the President been saying a whole lot of nice things about the South, the home of his mother, but he has been showing his admiration for the men of the South in more substantial fashion. When he found that Pearl Wight, of New Orleans, whom he had selected for the position of commissioner of internal revenue, could not take the job until next December, he promptly appointed John G. Capers, of South Carolina, as commissioner ad interim. This making of a temporary appointment in a position of this kind, is said to be absolutely unprecedented. It is understood that Wight's reason for not taking hold at once was the fact that as a member of the firm of Woodward, Wight and Company, he is largely interested in contracts with the government. He, therefore, asked the President to postpone the date of his assumption of a federal office until he should have opportunity to close out all business relations that in any way could embarrass him or the administration. The President wanted Wight and so contrived the scheme of a temporary appointment of another southern man. These two appointments, it is believed, will operate to swing South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana republicans into the pro-Roosevelt column, if they are not already there. The President's address on Georgia day, at the Jamestown Exposition, was received with such enthusiasm that the theory has actually been advanced that should the President himself decide to run for a third term, he could break the solid South in the next national election. The story comes up from the South today that the President told some of his southern friends that such a prospect would be the only possible thing that could induce him to alter his determination not to be a candidate. But whether he may become a candidate or not, he is determined that the nomination shall not go to a "reactionary." In line with this policy, he will put no soft pedal on the Roosevelt shouters, either North or South, in the hope that there will be enough delegates pledged to either Roosevelt or some other Roosevelt candidate, to carry the convention for the administration.

A court-martial will probably be ordered for the trial of Lieut. Col. Charles G. Ayres on account of the interview growing out of the expulsion of his wife from West Point, in which he was purported to have criticized army officers generally, saying, among other things, that he "would sooner be tried by a lot of crocodiles than by a board of fellow officers." On the appearance of the interview in the press, the War Department called upon him for an explanation. It was announced at the War Department that Col. Ayres' reply was to the effect that he "respectfully declines to make any statement with regard to the interview." Under these circumstances, Secretary Taft has ordered Gen. Ernest A. Garlington, chief inspector, to make a formal inquiry into the matter. Should this investigation establish the fact that Col. Ayres was quoted with substantial correctness in the interview, he will be court-martialed.

The appeal of the Brooklyn members of Congress that one of the big 20,000 ton battleships which are about to be contracted for by the Navy Department, should be built at the Brooklyn navy yard, has been rejected by Secretary of Navy Metcalf because of lower bids.

The local grand jury today returned an indictment charging murder in the first degree against Gaston P. Philip, the millionaire clubman of this city and New York, who shot and killed Frank B. Macaboy, at the Arlington Hotel at midnight May 18, after the two had come in from doing the Tenderloin. Philip had hired a cab from Macaboy, a driver, and it was supposed that an altercation followed when Macaboy presented his bill.

The Navy Department has been informed by the government of Sweden that the armored cruiser, Fylgia, will visit this country about the middle of August to represent that government at the Jamestown Exposition.

Girl Victim of Fiend.

Nellie, the 16-year-old daughter, of John Ott, residing in West Virginia, three miles south of Cumberland, Md., was seized by an unknown white man while on her way to Cumberland early Saturday morning, dragged in the woods, securely tied to a tree, gagged and repeatedly assaulted. When he left the fiend told her he intended to come back Saturday night and bring his chum.

The girl managed to work the gag from her mouth and with her teeth gnawed the cords that bound her to the tree and ran to the road and informed some men of what had occurred.

Constable James Stickley, of Ridgely, W. Va., organized a posse, and a hunt for the girl's assailant was begun. The man is thought to be in hiding in Cumberland or along the canal.

The girl was nearly nude when she reached the road and she is now in a serious condition. Her assailant told her he had watched her house Friday night and had triedto catch her.

Everybody's Magazine for July has been received from its publishers in New York, and is in every department up to this magazine's always high standard. No more vitally interesting article has appeared lately than "Brain and Body," its initial article. "The Aristocracy, of the Circus" is an entertaining contribution. "The Cheat of Overcapitalization" is timely in its account of the inflation of railroad securities, and the "Suez Canal" and "What is the House of Lords" will be read with interest. "Three Hundred Years Ago," by Eugene Wood, a serial, eight short stories, verse, etc. are in the make up of this attractive issue.

The July Metropolitan has been received from its publishers in New York. It is the summer vacation number and offers good reading in many varieties. Its leading and most important article is "Life, Health and Our Milk Supply." "There She Blows!" gives an account of present day off-shore whaling. "The Future of Transportation" and "John Bull's Bread-basket" are of interest. "The Mexican War" this month deals with Wool's Campaign and Buena Vista, and "The World at Large" gives timely comment on portraiture. Other articles, excellent fiction, poems, fantasies, etc., complete this holiday number.

News of the Day.

Emperor William sailed his yacht Meteor to victory in the races at Kiel on Saturday.

Bishop Ellison Capers, of the Episcopal Diocese of South Carolina, is critically ill.

Eight laborers were killed and 40 injured yesterday when a local struck a work train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford road, at Hartford.

A cyclone on Saturday evening did much damage to crops and bridges in northern Texas, Oklahoma, and Indian Territory and many persons were injured.

Two men in a Pittsburg rolling mill yesterday fought a duel with white-hot iron bars, both being badly seared before they became exhausted and could be disarmed.

The new Protestant Episcopal Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul, in Washington, for which the final plans have now been adopted, will be larger than Westminster Abbey.

Supervising Inspector Oast states that investigation has not developed the cause of the wrecking of the launch in Hampton Roads, which cost the lives of six midshipmen.

It is rumored that the Southern Railway Company will at an early date replace its former fast mail train, known as No. 97, running between Washington and New Orleans.

The Alexandria Association baseball team Saturday evening defeated the Washington Athletic Club of Washington, by a score of 10 to 2, in a game on the old fair grounds.

Andrew Carnegie will visit the Peace Congress at The Hague and settle personally with representatives of the government of the Netherlands details regarding the palace of peace he has given.

Discovering that his wife had a first husband alive in the Klondike, Col. William A. Stokes, commandant of the Twenty-third Regiment, in Brooklyn, has brought suit for annulment of his marriage.

The first and second committies of the peace conference met at The Hague Saturday and divided into sub-committies; a number of proposals regulating rules of warfare and one providing for the consideration of the Drago doctrine were introduced.

Miss Carolyn Beauregard Guyol, nineteen years old, niece of Gen. G. P. T. Beauregard, and Abner H. Cook, twenty-one years old, of Hot Spring, Va., a prominent University of Virginia man, eloped Saturday from New Orleans to Algiers and were married. The groom was attended by W. P. Jourdone, of Orange, Va., a fellow-student.

Practically every woman and man in Lawrence county, Miss., the home of Mrs. Angie Birdsong, has turned against her, and in a petition Saturday to Gov. Vardaman bitterly assails Mrs. Birdsong, and vigorously urges that the five-year sentence approved by the Supreme Court for the killing of Dr. Thomas H. Butler, her family physician, be allowed to stand.

Four passengers on a Pullman car, two of them being Washingtonians, who arrived over the Pennsylvania at 3:50 o'clock yesterday morning, were robbed during the night while they were asleep. Cash amounting to nearly $300 was taken and several of the grips were cut open and ruined and the contents carried away. The theft was committed just before the train got to Washington.

The community of Avondale, Pa., is intensely wrought up against Irwin Lewis, charged with the murder of his little stepdaughter. Raving and declaring his love for little Mary Newlin, whose strangled body was found buried in his yard, Lewis is in a critical condition at the county jail. All yesterday he acted like a madman, becoming so violent that it was necessary to put him in a strait-jacket.

Fearing he could not succeed in his chosen profession, Dr. Henry S. Hutchinson, son of a well known citizen of Philadelphia, committed suicide in a field at Lansdowne, near Philadelphia, by cutting his throat with a razor. The body was found Saturday, and it is believed he committed the deed a day or two ago. A bloodstained razor, a vial containing poison and an affectionate letter addressed to his father were found near the body.

A dispatch from Budapesth says a farmer, near Debreezin, was awakened at night by a strange noise on the roof of his house. He found that a balloon without a car had fallen on the house. While he and some farm hands, with lanterns were preparing to remove it, the gas exploded, killing the farmer and four others and injuring six. Meanwhile the car was found 15 miles distant. Its three occupants were dead. They had evidently fallen from a height. They have not been identified.

To save the life of his sister, Mrs. Louise Middleton, who was being severely beaten, William Hauck shot and mortally wounded his brother, Gotthelf Hauck, early yesterday morning, at the home of Mrs. Middleton, in Gardenville, Baltimore county, Md. Gotthelf died yesterday, at a hospital in Baltimore, where he had been moved by the brother and sister. William Hauck was committed on the charge of murder to await the action of the grand jury. Counsel for the prisoner will make application for a writ of habeas corpus.

Mayor Garrett and Marshal Collins placed under arrest last night every employe of Glen Echo Park, Maryland, the members of the National Guard Band, who made their first appearance at the resort yesterday; the peanut boys, telephone operators, and a score or more conductors and motormen who run cars to and from the park. Warrants will be issued for the arrest of every individual whose name was obtained by Marshal Collins, charging him with violating the Glen Echo ordinance putting into force the State law which provides that no person shall indulge in physical labor in Maryland on Sunday.

Mercellin Albert, leader of the winegrowers' revolt in France, and a fugitive from justice, yesterday surprised Premier Clemenceau by a visit, during which he urged the Premier to withdraw the troops from the disaffected districts, assuring him that order would immediately be restored. The audacity of the chief of the winegrowers' movement astonished the government officials. M. Clemenceau, after advising Albert to place himself at the disposal of the proper authorities, conducted him to the door and told him he was free to go. The Premier severely condemned the course he had adopted in advising, not violence, but equally illegal proceedings by the disaffected population.

Virginia News.

Peaches are ripe in Stafford county.

Charles C. Dailey, a former jeweler, of Leesburg, died at Strasburg yesterday at the home of his father-in-law, S. M. Funk.

A bird dog belonging to W. E. Rudasill, of Front Royal, became suddenly mad Saturday morning and started on a rampage, biting eight or more dogs before being captured.

Mrs. Hattie E. A. Tucker, wife of Rev. Dallas Tucker, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, died Saturday after a protracted and distressing illness extending over nearly five years.

At an early hour Saturday morning fire broke out in the Naylor block, close to the Southern Railway depot, in Front Royal. Prompt action on the part of the fire department saved the buildings from total destruction.

The judges of the Court of Appeals at Wytheville on Saturday were engaged in an inspection of the papers handed in by the law class Friday. Out of a class of sixty-eight twenty-two failed to pass. Among those who passed the examination was Harry Miller Strickler, of Alexandria.

The new Methodist Episcopal Church at Woodstock was dedicated yesterday. The sermon was delivered by Dr. Collins Denny, professor of moral philosophy at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn. At the afternoon service addresses were delivered by four former pastors—Rev. S. J. R. Van Horn, J. P. Stump, J. P. Hyde and J. S. Hutchinson.

Bishop Gibson, of Virginia, will preach and confirm at the Church of Our Saviour, Oatlands, on Wednesday, June 26; at Emanuel Church, Middleburg, on Thursday, June 27, and at the Church of Our Redeemer, Aldie, on Friday, June 28. Service each night will be at 8 o'clock. The service at Aldie on Sunday next will be at 3:30 p. m. instead of 8.

Mr. J. H. Alexander, of Leesburg, in a political card explaining the senatorial withdrawal from the canvass of Mr. J. H. Ryan, of Loudoun, on the 18th inst, says he withdrew because conditions developed that morning which he thought required him to take that action in justice to himself and his friends. "I wish to say," he added, "that I am at least as much responsible as he is for his retirement, and invite an equal share of whatever blame may properly attach to it."

T. P. A.

The Travelers' Protective Association of America selected Milwaukee, Wis., as the next place of meeting and adjourned at Norfolk Saturday, after an exciting all-night meeting, which concluded with the election of the following officers:

President—W. R. Johnson, of Knoxville, Tenn.

First Vice President—Herbert Russ, of Philadelphia.

Second Vice President—John Guise, of Natchez, Miss.

Third Vice President—Harry T. Moore, of San Francisco, Cal.

Fourth Vice President—Thomas Poindexter, of Richmond, Va.

Fifth Vice President—Asa Lemline, of New York.

Secretary-Treasurer—Louis T. Le Beaume, of St. Louis.

Chaplain—Rev. Homer T. Wilson, of San Antonio, Texas.

Headless Body of Boy Found.

Two miles in the interior of a big swamp near New Orleans the headless body of Walter Lamana, an Italian child between 7 and 8 years old, who was kidnapped and held for $6,000 ransom two weeks ago, was found by police and vigilants just before daybreak yesterday. He had been strangled to death, according to the confession of one of several Italians held by the police.

The boy's neck is supposed to have been broken when he was strangled, causing the head to become separated from the body when decomposition set in. The head was found a short distance from the body.

Five Italians, two of whom are under arrest, are charged with being accomplices to the murder and extra details of police and deputies are maintaining order in the excited Italian quarter of the city. All day long small crowds had been dispersed promptly by the police despite whose precautions a report has gotten out summoning a mass-meeting at Elk Place.

Seventy armed deputies have been placed on guard at the Orleans parish prison, the strongest in the State, where three of the prisoners are held, and some apprehension has been felt over the safety of two other prisoners who were Saturday night taken to the adjoining parish.

Virginia Bankers.

At the closing session of the annual convention of the Virginia Bankers' Association at the Jamestown Exposition, on Saturday, Thomas B. Patton, editor of the Banking Law Journal, of New York, made a strong appeal for the support of the Virginia bankers in the bills of lading legislation.

He told of the work that has been accomplished by the committee on the subject appointed by the American Bankers' Association, and urged that the Virginians appoint a committee to cooperate with the national organization in its effort to have Congress pass the measures that are deemed necessary to regulate the bills of lading. He explained how, under the present laws, the bill of lading is but poor security to bankers for money loaned upon them, and cited numerous cases where large amounts had been lost by bankers

W. Richard Smith, of Richmond, was elected president of the association and Carrol Pierce, of Alexandria, was made one of the executive committee.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

The Loving Trial.

Houston, Va., June 24.—Upon his daughter's testimony depends whether Judge W. P. Loving, Thomas F. Ryan's close friend and manager of the latter's Oak Ridge estate, shall die on the gallows, or almost certainly be acquitted under the unwritten law for the killing of Theodore I. Estes, April 22.

Though Miss Loving has plainly determined what story to tell the jury, no indication has been given to the public of her decision. It is expected, however, that the selection of a jury will occupy but a short time following the opening of the trial today, and Miss Loving will doubtless be the first witness for the defense.

The prosecution will seek to prove that the killing of Estes was wholly unprovoked. The defense will represent that Estes plied Miss Loving with drink for the purpose of mistreating her. It is rumored that another young woman will swear to a similar experience with young Estes.

Judge Loving, who surrendered immediately after the shooting, makes no concealment of the fact that Estes was popular and that he has many enemies in Nelson county, their home. It was for this reason that he secured a change of venue to Houston.

Fully 250 witnesses and friends of Estes and Loving are gathered here for the trial fixed for today. Judge Loving, usually a silent, moody man, appears in excellent spirits as if confident of acquittal. Miss Loving seems little depressed by the ordeal through which she is to pass, and is uncommunicative concerning the story she will tell. She talks freely and cheerfully with her close friends.

Nine jurors were accepted during the opening session.

The sixty-four venireman summoned are mostly farmers. Of those accepted several said they had read no account of the tragedy. A number of men were rejected because they expressed opposition to the death penalty. One pleaded exemption under a Virginia law which permits a farmer to refuse jury duty during harvest.

Judge Loving appeared in court composed, but haggard. His corps of attorneys and a number of personal friends surrounded him.

Miss Loving showed intense nervousness when court opened, and tears fell from her eyes when the examination of the veniremen progressed. Later she grew more composed and smiled at some of the amusing remarks from candidates for jury duty.

George Fortune, uncle of Thomas F. Ryan, is among those at Judge Loving's elbow at the trial table.

Attorney John Lee, of Lynchburg, is conducting the examination of jurors for the defense and Commonwealth's Attorney Wood Bauldin, of Halifax, for the State.

Erect and defiant, but with tear dimmed eyes, Judge Loving listened today to the reading of the indictment charging him with the murder of Theodore Estes, the young Lovingston merchant whom the judge killed because, as he asserted, the young man had ruined the former's daughter, Elizabeth Loving.

Miss Loving, too, wept as she heard her father arraigned. The prisoner's wife was the most composed of any in the family party.

Less time than usual in such case is being occupied in the examination of veniremen and it is believed that the jury box will be filled before court adjourns tonight.

After the House of Lords.

London, June 24.—Prime Minister Campbell-Bannerman today offered in the House of Commons the government resolution restricting the Lords' power to nullify the Commons' work by means of the practical vote the Upper House now possesses.

The resolution says this should be so limited that it may be possible, within a single parliament, to make a law of any measure sanctioned by the lower House.

In presenting the resolution Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman declared that the Lords are a mere annex of the conservative party. He promised that a bill in accordance with the resolution will be introduced if the resolution is adopted.

It is believed the government will offer its bill, which the Lords are certain to mangle, resulting in its rejection. Then an appeal can be made to the voters with the proof of the Lords "destructiveness" as showing the need of a cure.

Sir Henry declared it is the intention of the government to arrange conferences between the Houses. If they cannot agree, the defeated measure will be reintroduced, passed and sent to the upper house with the notice that if a second conference fails it will be passed over their heads.

To offset the limiting of the Lords' veto power over legislation, it is proposed to reduce the term of parliament from seven to five years.

Impaled on Barbed Wire Fence.

Wilmington, Del., June 24.—Impaled upon a barbed wire fence with one of the barbs penetrating his skull just above his left eye, Richard R. Green, about 60 years old, was found by two boys late yesterday afternoon while rambling through the woods near Concord, a short distance from this city. Around the neck of the man was a cotton clothesline which he had tied to a tree, but the rope was broken. In addition to the clothes-line, five tarred strings had been used, but all had broken with the weight of his body. He had evidently intended to commit suicide, but the rope broke when he jumped from a limb of a tree. His neck was broken and when he fell the barded wire penetrated him.

The Hague Congress.

The Hague, June 24.—The various commissions which will thresh out the big questions to come before the plenary Hague Congress later for action settled down to work in earnest today. Count Tornielli's commission having charge of the "bombardment of ports" named a subcommittee to regulate the treatment to be accorded the vessels of belligerent nations in neutral harbors.

Gen. Porter, one of the American delegates, offered a proposal regulating the bombardment of ports, town and villages, and another regulation restricting the use of naval mines was offered by Delegate Satow.

Here's Good Advice.

O. S. Woolever, one of the best known merchants of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Cures every sore, wound, burn or abrasion. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

The Winegrowers' Revolt.

Beziers, France, June 24.—Even with dragoons, cuirassiers and gendarmes swarming over the entire country and turning the ordinary peaceful vineyard lands into an armed camp, the power of the French government in this great district today is nil and the revolting peasants are the real masters of the situation.

A correspondent of the Publishers Press was the first to make a canvass of the entire disturbed area. He reached Beziers today. Though the situation is calmer on its face then last Saturday, and though the expected disorders yesterday failed to materialize, the revolters have complete control of the entire region and have organized a perfect defense committee which is the real governing body of the Midi district. Orders are being issued regularly by a central committee to local defense committees in each of the two thousand villages affected by the revolt.

Beziers, France, June 24.—From the chiefs of half a dozen committees whom I interviewed came this same statement: "We never intended to break with the government or to go to the extent of a revolt until the troops of France became Russian cossacks and fired on our defenseless people. Now that the break has come we will never yield until our rights are recognized. The movement is not ending, but is only beginning."

A great cordon of troops is being quietly but swiftly thrown around the entire Midi district in anticipation of the wholesale outbreak which every one here regards as inevitable. Every important bridge and road in the district is guarded by troops to prevent dynamiting.

Today a wholesale exodus of the wives and families of the more aggressive of the rioters is on.

Already subscription lists are being sent around the entire district and a tremendous defense fund is being raised to carry on the fight.

Five Persons Killed In Collision.

Rochester, N. Y., June 24.—Five persons are dead and almost two-score, some of whom may die, were injured in a head-on collision on the Auburn Branch of the New York Central Railroad at Mitchell's farm, nine miles east of this city, late last night.

Train 230, eastbound, left this city at 10:35 o'clock, and was running slowly when it crashed into a westbound freight train running at top speed. The collision came on a curve in a deep cut, and the engines of both trains were completely telescoped, as was the smoker of the passenger train. All the dead and injured men were passengers on the passenger train, except a boy, who was riding in the cab of his father's engine which was drawing the freight train.

Fire broke out in the wreckage immediately after the wreck, and Engineer Lyons saw his son pinioned in the wreck with the flames drawing closer and closer. The engineer's cries attracted the attention of people who had come to the scene of the collision and the boy was drawn from his dangerous position just in time, but he had been so badly hurt that he died at the City Hospital early today.

Officials of the railroad make no statement concerning the cause of the wreck, but is reported that the crew of the freight train m'stook an order.

The Telegraphers' Strike.

New York, June 24.—It was officially announced at the offices of the Western Union Telegraph Company today that the agreement entered into by the company and the promises and concessions made to the operators in President Clowry's letter to Commissioner Neill are now off, and that in view of the action of the Commercial Telegraphers' in declaring a strike in San Francisco immediately after the company had made concessions and agreed to a settlement of all difficulties, all promises are off.

The Western Union officials say that so long as the strike in San Francisco is on, they will not meet the representatives of the Commercial Telegraphers on peaceful terms, but they also take the attitude that the calling off of the San Francisco strike will put them on a proper basis with the operators again, and that all of the concessions made to Commissioner Neill will go into effect the same as they would have done had not the San Francisco strike been called.

Immediately upon hearing of the action of the Western Union the executive committee of the Commercial Telegraphers went into secret session and is now considering the latest phase of the case.

Dr. Guy Guilty.

New York, June 24.—Dr. Samuel S. Guy, ex-coroner of Queens county, New York, who was tried for the murder of his wife, was found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree Saturday night. Supreme Court Justice Jaycox sentenced him to fifteen years in the State penitentiary.

Dr. Guy was then asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be imposed. He stood up, and facing Justice Jaycox, said:

"I am not guilty, I could not kill my wife; she was my best friend and she stood by me in all my troubles. I never laid my hand on my wife. We always lived very happy together. I am innocent of this crime and cannot understand how the jury ever convicted me. Last winter my wife refused to go South with her relatives because she wanted to stay here and help me. Since February 21 last I have not had a revolver in my hand."

Four Persons Drowned.

Rochester, N. Y., June 24.—Four deaths by drowning was the contribution of this city and vicinity to the list of Sunday fatalities headed by the wreck on the Auburn branch of the Central railroad at Pittsford.

An unknown man was found drowned in the Erie canal feeder, another unknown man was drowned in the Genesee river at Charlotte, where he had plunged in in an effort to save a woman who had fallen into the water while attempting to board a steamer. The woman was rescued, but he could not be.

Charles Lehr, of New York, was drowned in Irondequoit Bay by the upsetting of a boat, and George Morse, one of the State Industrial School inmates, was drowned while bathing in the Genesee river near Scottsville.

Georgetown, June 24.—Wheat 73a78.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise, Idaho, June 24.—Attorney Darrow opened the case for the defense in the Haywood murder trial today. His excoriation of Orchard was bitter in the extreme. He declared Orchard's testimony was utterly unworthy of credence by any honorable men.

The first witness to follow Darrow's opening address will be Mrs. M. J. King, a Cripple Creek boarding house keeper.

Max Malich, Lottie Day and others will swear that Orchard in their presence a dozen times made strong threats against Steunenburg, declaring that, if it was his last act, he would kill him, even though he "swung" for it. In this connection a peculiar fact came to light. The Hercules Mining Company in which Orchard owned a sixteenth interest has so far this year paid dividends of $572,000. Last month's alone amounted to $192,000 and the total since the mine first began paying approximates $2,392,000. Dan Gardner, to whom Orchard disposed of his holdings because he owed gambling debts, has become a millionaire through his connection with the Hercules mine.

Electrocution of Murderer.

Ossining, N. Y., June 24.—John Johnson, who received legal advice from Albert T. Patrick while both were in Sing Sing prison under sentence of death, was executed today in the electric chair at the prison. Only two contacts were given. Johnson killed his wife in Yonkers two years ago. In prison he met Patrick, who advised him to appeal to Governor Higgins to commute his sentence on the ground of error in the proceedings. Higgins granted a respite of two weeks and the case went to the United States Supreme Court.

Lewis Confesses.

Avondale, Pa., June 24.—Irwin Lewis, under arrest charged with the murder of his stepdaughter, five-year-old Mary Newlin, has made a partial confession to District Attorney McElree. It is said that he thrust the burlap bag over the child's head; that he tied the cord about her neck, and threw her body into the pit at the rear of his house and then filled the hole in which the body was found on Friday. Lewis does not admit that he killed the child, however, asserting that death was due to an accident and that he, unassisted, buried her.

Police Lieutenant Dismissed.

New York, June 24.—Police Lieutenant Frank Peabody, whose activity in the case of Howard Gould, as alleged in trying to run down a supposed former husband of Kathryn Clemmons Gould, led to charges being filed against him last week, was dismissed from the force today. He was accussed of telling an untruth to Deputy Commissioner Hanson during the Gould inquiry and leaving headquarters without permission.

Militia Protecting Murdered.

New Orleans, June 24.—Local militia companies are waiting in their armories for a call from acting Mayor McRacken to protect the fourteen men and women prisoners held in the parish prison charged with complicity in the Black Hand conspiracy which ended in the murder of kidnapped Leo Walter Lamana. There is much excitemer

The New York Stock Mari

New York, June 24.—Although th no increase in the volume of busir tone of the market was satisfactoril all through the first hour, and price few stocks traded in made advances from fractions up to 1¼ points. Before the end of the first hour the market flattened out and relapsed into dullness.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad, but loving remembrance of our dead baby, HELEN MAY LATHAM, who died June 24, 1906—one year ago today.

Hour by hour we saw her fail
And slowly sink away,
Yet in our hearts we often prayed
That she might longer stay.
Dear Helen, how can we give you up,
You whom we loved so well;
How can we drink that bitter cup
And say the word "farewell."
She suffered long and patiently and
But naught could ease the pain;
Her moans were heard by one above
Who quickly called her name.
And there was rejoicing in heaven
And beautiful sounds in the air,
When Helen went home with the angels
Away from our sorrows and care.
We still moan the loss of one
We tried our best to save;
Beloved on earth, treasured still,
Remembered in her grave.
Our grief for her is keeping
The shadow on our brow.
O blame us not for weeping,
We have no baby now.
When the evening sun is setting,
Often when we sit alone,
In our hearts there comes a feeling
That our loved one must come home.

MEETING SATURDAY NIGHT.

A mass meeting was held in the Opera House Saturday night under the auspices of the Trades Council of this city. The object of the meeting was to set forth existing relations between the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Electric Railway Company and organized labor. Superintendent J. Colvin of the railway company was denounced by every speaker.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. R. M. Prettyman who introduced the speakers. Among those who made addresses were F. C. Roberts of Washington, Sannil De Nedry, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor, of Washington; Crandal Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney of Alexandria county, and William B. Fitzgerald of Binghamton, N. Y., member of the national board of the American Federation of Labor.

Resolutions were adopted denouncing the road. The resolutions set forth "That the citizens of Alexandria, in mass meeting assembled, view with disfavor the action of Superintendent Colvin of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Electric Railway Company in discharging thirty-three of our citizens employed by the company for participating in the formation of a labor union and in his employing outside men to fill the vacancies made.

"That a copy of these resolutions be sent to President King of the railway company and published."

It was also provided that a committee be appointed to have "the wrongs and injustices done the men rectified. The committee will be appointed later.

The speakers did not advocate a strike but insisted on the recognition of organized labor.

Crandall Mackey said he was present through sympathy for the discharged men, and also in the interests of Luna Park, where only organized labor is employed. The speaker declared himself in favor of organized labor and declared that Mr. Colvin was an enemy to the same. In concluding his remarks Mr. Mackey stated that the labor union would go over Mr. Colvin's head and see Mr. King, president of the railway company, and he expressed hope of settling the trouble.

DROWNED.

A young colored man named Charles Jackson was drowned yesterday evening while bathing in the river at the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Works Jackson, who was partly clad, dived overboard and remained under water some time. When he rose he threw both arms up and moved his hands. He sank again, but failed to rise the second time. The report of the drowning was sent to the station house, and, at the request of Lieutenant Smith, the Washington harbor police boat Vigilant, Captain Sutton, proceeded to the scene of the drowning and succeeded in raising the body and placing it upon the wharf. It was later taken in charge by Demaine & Son. It was at first thought that Jackson had struck a sunken pile and been stunned, but no injury could be found upon him to substantiate this theory, and it is supposed he had a fit or was suffering from cramps.

Richard Owens, 24 years old, living in Langdon, D. C., was drowned yesterday afternoon while bathing near the new railroad bridge over the Eastern Branch, back of the Reform School, in Bladensburg road.

While fishing off the Arsenal wharf in Washington yesterday morning, Richard Page, age nineteen, went to sleep, fell into the water, and was drowned. It is said that the boy had been drinking.

NARROW ESCAPE OF BOYS.

Keith Carlin, son of Mr. C. C. Carlin, and two companions, Emmett Riner and Willis Washington, also of this city, had a narrow escape from drowning in the Potomac river late Saturday afternoon. The boat in which they were rowing was run down by a barge in tow of the tugboat Rosalie, Capt. M. Kersey, but Carlin and Washington saved themselves by jumping onto the barge, and Riner was picked up by Policeman Passeno of the Washington harbor precinct after he had been held under the water as the barge passed over him. Following their rescue the boys were taken aboard the Washington police boat Vigilant, in charge of Sergt. Dean, and were conveyed to a wharf in this city. Capt. Kersey immediately stopped his tug and started back with it to give assistance, if necessary, but upon seeing the boys had been put aboard the Vigilant he again took up the tow and continued down the river. In the swamping of the rowboat all the clothing of the three boys was thrown into the water, and for some time the harbor police boat seached for the missing articles. Finally all their clothes except one shoe and the watches and money belonging to the boys were picked up.

TROLLEY CARS COLLIDE.

A train on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway on its way to the power house crashed into the rear of a passenger train on the same road at Four Mile Run about 11:30 last night. No one was seriously injured, but in the panic that followed the collision a number of the occupants of the passenger train jumped through the windows and suffered slight cuts and bruises. The rear car of the passenger train was badly damaged. Traffic was suspended for a short time as a result of the accident.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

The following cases were before the court this morning:

Richard Williams, colored, charged with assault, was fined $10.

Lewis Cronk, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $10.

A locomotive collided with a construction car in the Potomac railroad yard yesterday. The car was demolished, but no one was hurt.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Mettler were surprised yesterday afternoon, by receiving a visit from their relatives from Danville, Pa.,—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buddinger and their two daughters, Misses Sara and Lula; Miss Maneing and father, and Mrs. Cummings, after returning from a trip to Jamestown. They will spend the remainder of this week in Alexandria and Washington.

Mrs. George A. Mushbach has returned from a trip to the Jamestown Exposition.

Dr. Alexander Murray, U. S. A., formerly of this city, is quite sick in Panama with typhoid fever.

Cadets Conrad Johnson and Bruce J. Downey have returned from the Virginia Military Institute to spend their holiday at their homes in this city. Cadet Johnson led at the final dance given by the cadets.

Miss Ursula Green has returned from Brevard, N. C., where she spent the past winter.

Mrs. Mary J. Schofield, widow of Arthur E. Schofield, is critically ill at the residence of her son, Daniel W. Schofield, 317 north Columbus street. Mrs. Schofield was stricken with paralysis recently.

Dr. Dabney Herndon is quite sick at his home on Prince street.

Capt. John Beckham who has been quite sick at his home on Prince street, is improving and able to be out again.

Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church was called to Philadelphia, yesterday evening by the death of his brother in that city.

NEW BAND FOR LUNA PARK.

One of the best and biggest bands the parkhas played so far this season will unquestionably please the patrons of the Potomac's pleasure paradise, attractive Luna Park. The band's season will extend to Saturday, July 6th, and, in the interim, music of the highest and most fascinating order will be performed by fifty of America's picked and foremost musicians who have distinguished themselves in the musical firmament.

Mothers are looking forward to the Baby Show Manager Goodfellow has arranged to take place on the afternoon of Saturday, June 29th, in the spacious dancing pavilion, between three and five o'clock. To avoid partiality or favoritism, a contingent of Washington and Alexandria business men, all disinterested, have been secured to act as judges. This will serve as a guarantee that such physical charms as the little ones may possess will receive unbiased recognition at the hands of those who have pledged themselves to award the prizes. It was originally planned only to enter babies ranging in age from six months to two years, but not wishing to bar little ones who happen to be a few months over or below the age limit, the management has decided to throw the competition open to all. This makes it possible for babies of every type, denomination and nationality to enter.

Thursday, June 27th, will be Royal Arcanum Day at the park.

SUNDAY.

Yesterday was a warm day, but not oppressive, and the churches were fairly well attended while many persons were on the streets or enjoying short excursions to the various summer resorts. The services at the churches were held according to Saturday's announcement. At Christ Church Rev. W. G. Pendleton, who was recently ordained a deacon at the Seminary, preached in the morning, and at Grace Church Rev. J. G. Buskie, who was also ordained a deacon last week, preached at night. Mr. Pendleton also preached last night at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, on south Fairfax street, and was assisted in the services by other students of the Seminary. The services at the chapel last night will be the last till the reopening of the Seminary.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Mr. Sanford Fair, an old resident of this city, died Saturday. The funeral took place this afternoon from the residence, 108 Prince street. Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, of the Baptist Church, officiated. The deceased leaves a widow and several children. He was about 70 years old, and his death was caused by apoplexy. Mr. Fair was a Confederate soldier during the civil war. He was a cousin of Capt. A. J. Fair.

John Brent, colored, a bricklayer by occupation, died at his home, 526 south Alfred street, Saturday. The deceased was 68 years old.

The funeral of the late John W. Atwell took place this afternoon from the residence on south Columbus street. Rev. C. D. Bulla conducted the services.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

M. E. Church vs. S. M. Dodd et al., a suit to recover the amount of commission on the sale of a piece of land; jury and verdict for defendant.

Blankership vs. R. F. & P. Railway et al., a suit to recover damages for injuries claimed to have been sustained by the plaintiff while operating a turn table, arguments heard on demurrer and case taken under advisement.

The court was engaged this evening in petit criminal cases.

EXCURSION TOMORROW.

The Alexandria Retail Merchants' Association will give an excursion to Luna Park tomorrow. Tickets are being sold at all the stores. A lady's gold watch and a suit case will be awarded as prizes to those holding lucky numbers. A programme of amusing features has been prepared for the occasion.

AFTER THE ARK.

It is rumored that all the church brotherhoods of this city have endorsed the movement recently started by the Presbyterian Brotherhood looking toward the removal of the ark now anchored in the river near Jones's Point, and have sent a communication to the authorities urging action in the matter.

DEATH OF MR. FISHER.

Mr. Frank R. Fisher, a brother of Mrs. Thomas A. Fisher, of this city, died at his home in New York yesterday after an illness of two weeks of acute Bright's disease. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left here this morning to attend the funeral.

I'll stop your pain free. To show you first—before you spend a penny—what my pink Pain Tablets can do, I will mail you free, a Trial Package of them—Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Period pains, etc., are due alone to blood congestion. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets simply kill pain by coaxing away the unnatural blood pressure. That is all. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Tomorrow night the chairmen of several committees will make their reports of the fiscal year ended on May 31st last. These reports will later be printed in detail. Those in a position to know express much satisfaction as to the year's results. The gas receipts were gratifying and while the loss in money by reason of increase in discount amounts perhaps to near $1,400, and will be twice that sum and more next year, yet this in no way has interferred with the labors of the committee on light to keep the works up-to-date in all their details, efforts ably seconded by Mr. Frank W. Latham, the superintendent, who apparently is as well versed in the management of the gas works as a veteran. But what is equally as gratifying to the committee on light, as it will be to the public, is the assiduity displayed by Clerk Waller in his collections, as one item from the gas report will show, and which we are allowed to use. The gas sold and charged to consumers was $44,816 85, less discount allowed $4,565.86, leaving a net balance of $40,250.99. The report further shows that during the year 1906-07, the collections from gas sold amounted to $39,964.65, and the collections since July 1 to this day on outstanding bills is $229 92, making a total of $40,194.57, or only $65.42 between collections and the $40,250.99 of gas sold consumers. A decidedly satisfactory exhibit, which shows where there is a will there is a way.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION.

The children of Bethany M. P. Church Sunday school held their Children's Day celebration at that church yesterday evening, which was interesting and greatly enjoyed by all present. The exercises were under the direction of Mr. N. S. Greenaway and the singing was excellent. Solos were rendered by Misses Rebecca Germond, Daisy Dudley and Elizabeth Hantzmon and the singing by the quartette was greatly enjoyed. The Children's Day celebration of the Sunday school of the Village Chapel held last night was well attended. The exercises were interesting and the musical programme was well rendered.

THE VOTE OF FAIRFAX.

The vote of Fairfax county cast at last Wednesday's primary was canvassed today and shows as follows: Nicol, 785; Carlin, 380; Gordon, 66; Ryan, 8. For House of Delegates: Oliver, 600; Williams, 510; Miller, 120; Oliver's plurality, 90.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The mercury reached the ninety mark again today.

A special officer at the Potomac railroad yard near this city was assaulted and severely beaten by a tramp last Saturday night.

The summer temperature of yesterday tended to crowd the excursion steamers and trolley trains, while many power launches from Washington and this city were transporting private parties up and down the river during the day. The temperature fell somewhat after dark, and later in the night there were occasional refreshing breezes.

Thomas McCuen and John Hughes were arrested yesterday by Officer Nicholson charged with stealing a watch from Mr. Matthews, who lives at the corner of Princess and Fairfax streets. Officer Young went to Washington today and recovered the watch, which he found in a pawn shop. The case will come up in the Police Court at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Norman Gates, colored, notified the police yesterday that he had been assaulted and beaten by Robert Smith and Charles Veney, both colored. The accused were arrested by Officers Beach and Gill, but Yates could not be found when the case was called in the Police Court this morning, and it was continued. It was said that the complainant had gone to Manassas.

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 24, 1907.

Stole 350 Pounds of Silver.

Exclusive Tuxedo Park, New York, was upset yesterday by its first burglary in the house of William B. Dinsmore.

The burglary, which is believed to have occurred at about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, was made possible through the sense of security felt by the residents of the park, because they have never been troubled by burglars. Whoever did the job walked through an open door in the basement of Mr. Dinsmore's house, scooped up all the silverware in sight in the dining-room and took five silver cups, won by Mr. Dinsmore at racquet and tennis tournaments, and two valuable violins from the library.

In making their escape the burglars stole a boat from the Dinsmore boathouse on Tuxedo Lake, a few yards away from the house.

The entire weight of the loot was estimated to total about 350 pounds by Mr. Dinsmore's servants who knew how much had been taken.

Negroes Dropped Coffin.

Sam Johnson, a negro ventriloquist and conjurer, who has been attracting crowds throughout Caroline county, Md., his old home district, to which he has returned, has been arrested and held in bail for a remarkable act last Thursday. Johnson is simply charged with disorderly conduct and malicious mischief, but his line of disorder was a trifle extraordinary. The charge is that Johnson attended a negro funeral near Denton, and just as the corpse was being lowered into the grave ventriloquized the words: "Let me down easy." The pallbearers, led to believe that the dead was speaking from the casket, dropped their burden like it was poison, and a panic ensued among the assembled negroes.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; He says: 'Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two said it was kidney; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranted to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and an, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, 50c.

Forbids Sale of "Coca Cola,"

The War Department Friday issued an order forbidding the sale of coca cola in the post exchanges in the Department of the East. This action was taken following numerous complaints reported concerning the effect of the drink and after an analysis of its ingredients made at the Department of Agriculture by Prof. Wiley, the chief chemist. Dr Wiley reported that in a majority of the samples of coca cola which he tested he found quanities of cocaine and caffein. Officers have reported that enlisted men have discovered the effect which the drink produces upon them, and that for the purpose of getting this effect they drink six or seven glasses of the stuff, and that the result is injurious to health, as well as destructive of morals.

Salesman Murdered.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Notice to City Taxpayers.

Collector's Office, June 17, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1907 are now in the hands of the collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1907, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent., and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1907, he shall allow a discount of five per cent., and on all bills not paid on the 1st of December, 1907, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent. upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1908, damages at the rate of six per cent. per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law.

P. F. GORMAN,
je17tjy1 Collector City Taxes.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 12, 1907.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the Dog or Canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring Dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3.00 or $5.00.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for licenses to the Auditor.

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

The following is a copy of Section 54 of the License law: "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents."

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS.

Gas bills for the quarter ending June 1, 1907, having been delivered, this is to notify all customers that the usual discount will be allowed on all bills paid on or before July 1, 1907. After that date no discount will be allowed and delinquents will be required to make early settlement. By order of the Committee on Light. J. B. WALLER, je15 td Clerk of Gas.
